WE REJECTED YOUR APPLICATION FOR AN IRS INDIVIDUAL TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER (ITIN)

Why Are You Getting This Notice?

Thank you for your Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN). You are receiving this notice because we could not process your Form W-7 and have rejected it for the following reason:

The U.S. federal tax return you submitted with your Form W-7 does not have enough information to determine if you have a filing requirement. For example, a tax return with all blanks or zeros.

If this is incorrect and you have taxable income to report, please correct your tax return and re-submit your original, signed tax return, attached to your Form W-7, and send it with supporting identification documentation to prove identity and foreign status, to the address shown above.

Examples of acceptable supporting identification documents include:

- Passport- If you are a dependent or a spouse of a nonresident alien visa holder applying for an ITIN, you must submit a valid passport and a valid U.S. visa.
- Foreign national identification card (For example, a Mexican "matricula" or consular card)
- U.S. or foreign driver's license, or U.S. state identification card

Please note that a passport is the only document that will prove both identity and foreign status. All other documentation will require a combination of supporting identification documents to prove identity and foreign status.

If you need to contact us about this matter, please call the telephone number or write to the address, and refer to the Case Reference Number, shown above.
